

A world map with a light gray background and black outlines of continents and countries. Seven black dots are placed on the map to indicate regional offices. Each dot is accompanied by a text label in a colored box. The labels are: 'Article 19 Headquarters' (blue box, top center), 'Mexico and Central America' (brown box, left), 'Sénégál and West Africa' (brown box, center-left), 'Tunisia and MENA' (brown box, center-right), 'Bangladesh and South Asia' (brown box, right), 'Kenya and East Africa' (brown box, bottom center), and 'Brazil and South America' (brown box, bottom left).

Article 19 Headquarters

Mexico and Central America

Sénégál and West Africa

Tunisia and MENA

Bangladesh and South Asia

Kenya and East Africa

Brazil and South America